WEYMOUTH GAZETTE, CITIZEN,

EAST WEYMOUTH NEWS

SUNDELLATE SEPTEMBER 27, 1890

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY THE WEYMOUTH & BRAINTREE PUBLISHING CO.

Telephone—17-4.
Post Office Address, Weymouth, Mass.

Managers and Editors:
A. W. BLANCHARD & CO.

Terms—$50 per year.
Subscription paid in advance.

Advertisement inserted at the usual rates.

Correspondence and items of news are solicited from all readers of the Gazette. Every known or possible item of local happenings, the names and addresses of those who have done good, and other items of interest, are welcome.

While we have no regular corps of regular correspondents, there is much interest in the nature of things, they cannot get. Let your interest in our local paper and print your own news, and it will make the Gazette more bright and newsy.

ENTRANCE AT THE POST OFFICE AT WEYMOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, FEB. 3, 1899.

According to Condition Day, it has been too cold for more than the usual amount of cold, single weather the balance of the season.

The two sons and mothers of the legislature from Braintree have made themselves conspicuous by introducing bills into the house, but so far have been unfortunate in trying to get them beyond a first reading.

The bill introduced by James C. Miller, of Braintree, which would have provided for the creation of three hundred hills and roadsides introduced into the Massachusetts legislature, and it is safe to say that a large part of them will never get embodied in the laws of the Commonwealth.

Again the season is at hand when the town of Weymouth must make up its accounts and loss account and figure out its appropriations for another year. It is a fact well known to all that several of the departments does not have enough money to carry them through the fiscal year to April 1st, that appropriations must largely be resorted to in the department of schools, post office, police force, fire department, and so forth. What can the town do? What can the officers do? What can the citizens do? What can the schools and post office do? What can the police force do? What can the fire department do? What can the post office do? What can the citizens do?

TUFTS LIBRARY.

Florence Exhibition.

The exhibition of photographs illustrating the City of Florence, Italy, in the Boston Museum and the library, commencing Wednesday, Feb. 15th and lasting through Feb. 28th. Those who enjoyed the Venice exhibition will be glad to have the opportunity of seeing the lovely pictures representing the beautiful architecture and art of this historic city.

High School Note.

The class of 1901 gave a reception to the members of the faculty and their families on Friday evening, Feb. 1st. The entertainment was spent very satisfactorily by all. The entertainment was an excellent one and consisted of reading and musical selections which were followed by games and refreshments.

The class of 1901 addressed a letter to the community in charge of the affair.

Misses Schmitz and Mrs. Wm. T. Riley of the class were present.

After fifteen minutes' parent waiting without the lights, the parents went

EAST Weymouth.

—Rev. Geo. D. Latimer of Salem supplied the pulpit of the Unitarian church last Sunday, giving a discourse on "The Sabbath."

—Mrs. Sarah E. Cain is spending the week at Providence, and will take part in the work of the Relief Corps which is going on in that place.

—Local Scout's was a great last week of the Local Girls' Association.

—Something new and delicious—Chocolate cream, 25c per pound, at Harlow's.

—The fair of the M. E. church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Social Circle, was held on Friday evening. The entertainment was a dance, a drama, a lecture, given by a number of the young people under the direction of Mrs. Orr. The entertainment was very interesting and the participants acted their parts well and were well received.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Raymond and their family have been engaged in a tour to the granite People's Temple, Boston, Feb. 13th.

—Mrs. Stone of Lynn is visiting Mrs. Isabella Mathewson.

—Helen's Cream Balm for sale at 25c.

—Lee's Tissue, light-weight party weight, held in Gold Fellow's hall under the auspices of the Ladies' Society of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. There was a very large number present and the meeting was a success.

—A large delegation from the Young People's Christian Union of the Third church attended the meeting.

—The Young Ladies' Mission circle met Monday evening with Miss. A. J. Sutherland.

—Mr. Richard Miller is visiting friends in New York and intends to continue his journey to South Carolina to visit his son at Port Royal where his ship is situated. The family has just returned from a vacation.

—Lee's Tissue, light-weight party weight, held up in a training class for girls.

—Mrs. Leon Johnson of Cambridge was the guest of friends.

—Mrs. Amanda Spear is ill with grippe.

—The members of the Young People's Union held a meeting Monday evening at Pilgrim church.

—Rev. Mrs. Weston, pastor of the First Congregational Church, has been married with a new battery of 25c guns and fitted up as a training class for girls.

—Mrs. Leon Johnson of Cambridge was the guest of friends.

—The Loyalty League, Legion, did not have a meeting this week.

—How may Judge by appearance, we are soon to have respectable looking ladies on our streets instead of the unattractive ones that are there at present. At least, a large number of several girls have been deposited at the hotel, Q. B. Hotel house.

—A lot of engaged alimony expected from Philadelphia today. Very nice, 25 cents per pound at Harlow's.

—Last Friday a number of young people spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Miss Mary L. Tucker on Hawley street. The time was spent in playing games and a dandy lunch was served.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Raymond of Cambridge were visiting H. B. Raymond the last part of last week.

—We have another horse show this week.

—We hear that two of our citizens are preparing for a race meet against Hovey. Thus far the men have proved a bad second to the horses in the trial races they will double up in practice.

—Stephen Patrick is on a business trip extending as far as South Carolina.

—Mrs. Goff and Arthur Cummings were in town last week.

—We have a call for more house of the Hawley's.

—We again call for more books at the Adams school. The school application is small that the committee have to stretch pretty hard to make it cover all demand. We are sorry to know that the donations which were left when the change was made at this school have failed to be realized. It is never pleasant to kick.

—Fay candy aids digestion 25c per pound at Harlow's.

—Have you purchased your ticket for the fireman's ball next Friday, Feb. 10th, at the Hotel Rockland?

—Dr. George P. Hunt of Harvard Medical School is at present on duty at the Lynn hospital.

—Mrs. A. J. Cushing has given up to the previous epidemic.

—A woman who was confined to her home last week is able to be out again.

—W. C. Earle is offering the services of the Weymouth Clothing Store an audience to look at his bargain counter.

—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Young People's Union was held by the legion of the church.

—The fast was taken from the eleventh chapter of Hebrews and proved very appropriate for the occasion. There was a fair attendance.

—Mrs. Frank Cushing is holding a campaign for the W. F. S. Society.

—Just received 150 lbs. fine peppermint oil per pound at Harlow's.

—Fay candy aids digestion 25c per pound at Harlow's.

—The Loyalty League, Legion, did not have a meeting this week.

—The Ladies' Auxiliaries to Diocesan and P. O. A. do not wish still will the Opera House with their minutest entertainments and dances.

—Mrs. M. C. Goff after a severe illness has recovered. Mrs. Goff was a pensioner of the Mechanics' War.

—Steadfast Rehearsal Lodge, No. 10, will hold a regular five cent supper next Monday evening. Ladies please bring money to pay for the supper and help in spreading the word with friends in Harlow's.

—Lee's Wind is showing novelties in ribbons for the coming season.

—The teachers of this ward visited schools of other towns yesterday and the day before for a day skating.

—Fresh and delicate peppermint, very nice and creamy, 25c per pound at Harlow's.

—Helen's Cream Balm for Chapman bands, sure cure.

—We are pleased to report still another victory, being held at the residence of Everett Gardner on Pleasant street. There were present people from the Weymouth and Rockland. The occasion was graced with the presence of Miss Maudie Pratt, who had a most interesting address who has been here for some time. He spoke in a beautiful manner. A fine collection was taken.

—Joseph Taylor has been confined to his residence this week with the grippe.

—Alfred Inkley has resigned his position from the Legion with the greatest regret.

—Master Charles Turrell is making extensive preparations for a new departure in the chicken industry.

—He will be greatly missed by patrons of the post office, the leatherason, Postmaster Thomas, his wife passing away several months ago.

—The services were held yesterday afternoon from his home on Bayview street.

—Thomas H. Vincent officiating. A quartette, Mrs. W. E. Bentz, Mrs. Edward Orr, Mrs. W. A. Post and A. J. Sutherland sang "God is Love," "Aimite With Me," "Never Fear a Cross," etc.

—A delegation of prominent friends from Dighton Lodge, F. A. S. and the Masonic service was at the Old North cemetery.

—Evertt M. Pratt has resigned his position from the Legion with the greatest regret.

—Mrs. Betsy Prout, who has been quite ill, has recovered.

—The funeral service was held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Dyer on Pleasant street.

—E. C. Dyer and his wife, Mrs. Dyer, and their son, C. H. Dyer, Jr., were buried.

—Mrs. C. H. Dyer, Jr., died January 26th.

—The services were held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Dyer, Jr., on Pleasant street.

We have an efficient corps of regular contributors, there is much interest in the nature of things they cannot get. Let your interest in your local paper and in your town feed us in making the Gazette more useful and necessary.

ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT WEY-

MOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, FEB. 17, 1890.

Causeus night.

People are anxiously waiting for certain banks to open again.—Snow banks

The Gazette office is printing the town reports of Weymouth, Braintree and Cooset.

Quincy wants to refund its debt. Large amounts are falling the which cannot well be paid. The city's interest item alone is $200,000.

New Weymouth is the anniversary of the birth of him who was "first in peace, first in war, and first in the hearts of his countrymen" and Gov. Wolcott will continue the practice of holding a public reception on that day. Visiting to the State House on Wednesday evening, the annual meeting of Massachusetts' far-est Governor.

Beyond the limits of the county there has been some adverse criticism of the course of action taken by the Legislature in authorizing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth to create a separate legislative body for Boston for a public purpose. The last answer to these criticisms is the opinion of those who have had these legal difficulties, our countrymen, and they are a unit in the view that larger and better quarters are a real necessity. The work in these offices have greatly increased in the past few years, and the State and other county commissioners should have their portion of the responsibility.

The thoughts of the best county building erected in Braintree has not entirely faded away.—Quincy Advertiser.

With the present board, past thoughts need not bring present fears of any reption.

Old Colony Club.

The mothers of South Weymouth are invited to meet with the Old Colony Club on the Union Street, Weymouth, on Friday, Feb. 23 at 2 o'clock, to be advised for the new season's "Education" will interest all matrons.

Miss Helen Rockwood and Mrs. Smith on Relation of the Home to the School, Mrs. Alice Almond on the Relation of the School to the Home.

High School Notes.

There was no school at the High school and at the other schools, the first three days of this week on account of the storm. Yesterday the school began again, while about half of the students who had come to Weymouth were unable to come, while many who live in other parts of the town were afraid of the snow.

The organization which was formed to help the poor in the winter, has been a success from the start and now numbers 125 men who are actively engaged in helping the poor.

A pleasant and welcome feature of the evening was a clink of a clink from the Bradley Fertilizer Co. for $55 in recognition of services at their recent meeting.

The organization which was formed to help the poor in the winter, has been a success from the start and now numbers 125 men who are actively engaged in helping the poor.

The senior class now more than the pleasure of counting Miss Fannie Hender among their number. Miss Hender has been ill since the Christmas vacation.

Because of the large number absent and because of the small number present, the programme in celebration of Weymouth's Birthday will be postponed from this afternoon until next Friday.

Give the Children a Drink.

It is a delicious appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Slightly all grown and liked by all who have it because when properly prepared it tastes like the best coffee but free from all its injurious properties. Granulated and digested and strained so that it will not burn the mouth but will be health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 14¢ as much as coffee. 15¢.

Annual Sunday-School Convention of East Norfolk District.

The annual convention of the East Norfolk District will be held at the Baptist Church, Weymouth, Tuesday, February 28, at 10 a.m.

Among others the Rev. W. P. Johnson of Medford, the Rev. A. W. Archibald, D. B. Brockton, C. Hamilton Conant, and Miss Mary L. Abbott will speak at the convention. In the evening Mrs. Eliza H. Whitaker will speak on the topic "Our Junior Boys" and her Arthur Little, D. D. will deliver an address. Louis A. Cook is the president.

Fairmount Cemetery Fair.

All are interested in the improvement of Fairmount Cemetery and who are not are reminded that the annual fair is near at hand and every one is invited and urged to contribute generously to the fair.

Fancy articles may be left with Mrs. William White, Mrs. J. F. Cushing, Mrs. J. H. Tolman and Mrs. B. S. Lovell before Monday afternoon, Feb. 27.

Reserved seats will be for sale at East's clothing store, East Weymouth, and in all the Weymouth stores. Speculators for lot of attractions.

The next meeting, which will be the last before the fair, will be held with Mrs. Clayton Merchant next Thursday afternoon.

Weymouth Savings Bank Election.

At the annual meeting of the Weymouth Savings Bank Corporation held on the 17 instant the following officers were elected and have taken the oath of office:

MOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, FEB. 24, 1893.

EVENING NEWS, a judicious, up-to-date weekly newspaper, published at East Weymouth by the Weymouth Publishing Co., is now upon the market. It is issued to fill a supposed want of a town newspaper early in the week and contains the happenings from Friday to Tuesday. The price is 2 cents, and it is the best all news digest. Our correspondents are desirous to give news of their town in Monday.

Washington's Birthday was celebrated as a national holiday on Wednesday. The ringing of bells and ringing of guns throughout the day and the flags flying in every public place in our vicinity. The public schools were not in session and banks, libraries and courts were closed, a legal holiday, but in many families work was done to the greatest satisfaction. The Gazette office did a full day's work being busy in our town reports of Bradbury and Weymouth's leading British

The Gazette office did a full day's work being busy in our town reports of Bradbury and Weymouth's leading British

The duty of every citizen of a town is to take an interest in its municipal affairs at all times especially so in the election of town officers, appropriate and fitting money should be given to the eve of the election of officers and the apportionment of money for another year. We are a large town with varied and complicated interests and it behoves every citizen to exercise weight and care in his personal relationships. While we should steer clear of wild and extravagant expenditures we should at the same time be liberal enough in the distribution of appropriations to every man or woman of all the institutions we have expended so much money to establish.

Political.

This paper will not use its editorial columns to comment on political questions, but candidates have now been made by the Republican caucus and all candidates shall have a free field and a fair show, without anyone's chances being prejudiced by this paper. The "People's" Column is the only newspaper which has anything to say. This is a newspaper for the whole town and for all its citizens.

President McKinley's First to Boston.

was the event of last week for all New England, particularly the dwellers in towns where the administration had already designated. Many of our residents caught glimpse of our president and his cabinet as he drove from station to hotel or from station to subway. Several were present at the opening of the Boston Market Club, while the elegant and elegant fashions brought with wisdom and significance. Truly Boston was favored that the chief of our nation should choose her ancient site for the expression of his thoughts and policy in those great and pressing questions of advancing power and increasing influence of the United States of America.

The members of the presidential party were a public company of statesmen and their wives, who gathered together in the city for the annual gathering annual. The love of Massachusetts for her honored son, the secretary of the navy, Hon. John D. Long, was everywhere displayed. The great and general shout on Friday evening for the privilege of meeting Mr. McKinley, when Massachusetts' highest statehouse, beneath the gilded dome stood our president and our governor and an illustrious group of noted men and again the walls that echoed to the stirring words of Senator Sumner, Senator Charles Sumner, Daniel Webster and other famous ones, now echoed and resounded, with the hearty and patriotic greetings enthusiastically poured out by our own of our War Department, Mr. George W. McCrary, Webster, and the parts of distinguished guests. Our district was favored in having Representative M. E. H. Hayes appointed to the reception committee.

At the banquet of the Home Market Club we noticed among many familiar names that of our townsmen Col. Benjamin S. Lovell.

Exhibition of Photographs at the Tufts Library.

The exhibition of photographs illustrating all that is attractive to tourists in the beauty of Florence which is now being held at the Tufts Library is well worth seeing. It shows the "Point de Signore" where Savonarola was hanged and buried. The buildings around this square contain most beautiful paintings and sculptures in the greatest master of which is the "Madonna del Magnifico". The exhibition will close on Monday evening, Feb. 27.

Daughters of the Revolution.
